20.01.6 Awards Criteria

A. Valor Award

1. The Valor Award is presented to a sworn member who has displayed courage, fortitude and has performed a duty well beyond that which would reasonably be expected in a tense or emergency situation. The circumstances of the event must have placed the sworn member's life in jeopardy.
2. The Valor Award may be presented to a civilian member in special circumstances.
3. Documentation should clearly indicate the circumstances under which the nominee's life was placed in jeopardy.
4. The Valor Award consists of an engraved plaque and ribbon.

B. Lifesaving Award

1. The Lifesaving Award is presented to a sworn or civilian member who saves or prolongs the life of another. Merely calling for assistance is considered an essential function of a sworn member's job and does not, by itself, qualify for this award.
2. Medical statements should accompany nominations documenting the member's actions clearly saved or prolonged the victim's life. For incidents not involving medical actions, statements from other law enforcement officer and/or witnesses should be submitted.
3. The Lifesaving Award consists of an engraved plaque and ribbon.

C. Purple Heart Award

1. The Purple Heart Award is awarded to a sworn member who has been injured in the line of duty. The injury must have been through no fault of their own and in the competent execution of their official duty.
2. The injuries may take place off duty if the member is acting in their official capacity as a law enforcement officer and not in such a manner as to disgrace either their oath of office or the Department.
3. The injuries must be of sufficient seriousness as to require hospitalization or comparable medical treatment.
4. The Purple Heart Award consists of a certificate and a ribbon.

D. Commissioner's Commendation

1. Law Enforcement Excellence:

The Commissioner's Commendation is presented to a sworn member for acts that display ability, skill and devotion to duty while executing an arrest, or performing an act beyond the call of duty which reflects great credit upon the member and the Department.

2. All sworn or civilian members:

The Commissioner's Commendation is presented to a member for acts that display ability, skill and devotion to duty through the implementation of programs or support of programs which reflect great credit upon the Department or provide significant benefit to the overall mission of the Department.

3. The member exemplifies the Department's Core Values (Trust, Fortitude, Compassion and Professionalism.)

4. The Commissioner's Commendation consists of a certificate and ribbon.

E. Safe Driver Ribbon

1. The Safe Driver Ribbon is presented in five-year increments (5, 10, 15, 20, 25 and 30) to a sworn member who has operated a departmental vehicle safely and has not been at fault in a traffic crash during the specified time period.

2. The time period begins to accrue when the member is issued a Departmental vehicle. No nominations shall be made until the member has actually accrued the number of years without being at fault in a traffic crash.

3. All Safe Driver ribbons will be sent to the recipient's direct supervisor for presentation.

4. Once a specific Safe Driver ribbon has been awarded, the member shall not lose the right to wear the ribbon if at fault in a subsequent departmental vehicle crash. However, the member shall lose all years accrued toward the next highest Safe Driver ribbon and must begin to restart accrual of years towards that ribbon.

F. Employee Recognition Award

1. The Employee Recognition Award recognizes an individual or team who displays outstanding performance and efficiency in all job tasks and related duties for the calendar year.

2. The Employee Recognition Award consists of a certificate.
